

PLUVIO PIC

Push-in rain gauge

The Pluvio Pic rain gauge is a simple way to measure the amount of water that has fallen per square meter on a given surface. This object should be planted in the ground. Make sure the rain gauge is as upright as possible to obtain the most accurate information.

Benefits

Allows you to measure the amount of water that has fallen over a given period.
The graduation provides quick readability of the amount of water fallen per square meter.
The spike allows for easy movement.

Characteristics

Made of polypropylene.
Light green color.
Made in Europe.
Includes ground support for planting.

Ref.	Color	Material
144057		PP